

Introduction to Reformed Theology Syllabus

The information in this course syllabus provides all the details need to complete this course. Questions beyond what is provided here should be addressed to your academic adviser.

I. Goal

Introduction to Reformed Theology is designed to afford students a basic understanding of the theological principles that drove the Reformation, and the ability to explain the distinctives of Reformed Theology.

II. Required Reading

The following texts may be purchased at most online booksellers.

Jim Scott Orrick, Mere Calvinism, (Philipsburg: P & R, 2019).

R. C. Sproul, What is Reformed Theology?: Understanding the Basics, (Grand Rapids: Baker Books, 2016).

Michael Reeves, The Unquenchable Flame: Discovering the Heart of the Reformation, (Nashville: B & H, 2009)

III. Lectures

Listen/watch all twelve What is Reformed Theology lectures by R. C. Sproul.

IV. Assignment

Write a five to eight page paper on one of the “five solas” of the Protestant Reformation. This paper should explain what the sola is, why it arose as a critical point of doctrine within the Reformation, and why it is relevant today. Cite all sources and submit your paper in .doc format.
